Northfield Visitor Recalls Coming Here Nearly 50 Years Ago

Registered at the Northfield Hotel is A. H. Jarvis of Ottawa, Canada, who, with his daughter, have come for a stay for several years, but notable was his experience and impressions of his first visit in 1894, the year when the large auditorium was completed and used for the first time by the several summer conferences. Mr. Jarvis has been a successful business man and for 55 years has conducted a bookstore in the same location at Ottawa. His first visit was induced by the personality of Dwight L. Moody, and he well remembers reaching the station by train from Canada at six in the morning, and on conveyance there to carry them to the grounds. He walked the distance headed by Stone Hall, lugging the large suitcase and on sight of Mr. Moody's home, found him in those early hours amusing himself with a cat in the tree. He was recognized and after a salutary greeting, Mr. Jarvis went his way and secured lodging at Stone Hall and meals at Marquand. Four were to be in a room and the cost to each of $1 a day for room and meals. I well remember the opening day of the conference, says Mr. Jarvis. The platform was decorated with flowers, and seated were the speakers and invited guests. Mr. Sankey and Mr. Stebbins led in the singing but D. L. M.'s personality was above all and wonderful. He had a passion to lead others and he was filled with earnestness and compassion. He would display his emotions of sorrow and of joy and reveal the burden of his soul. Well do I remember the message and of the singing of the hymn, "When I survey the wondrous cross" which the large chorus so triumphantly rendered at the Sacred Concert a week ago last Sunday. As I listened to the singing I was thrilled and then impressed by the great work of Mr. Moody, who builded better than he knew. I remembered that Rev. F. B. Meyer's voice was heard that year as well as many others, who all provided the program for the large and enthusiastic audience who crowded the place into overflowing. There were no automobiles then, it was the good old days of the "horse and buggy," but people did come to Northfield and they came in the thousands. The hotel was small in those early days, about one third of its present size and I remember to reach it from the campus I walked through vast fields of green. The time has passed quickly but often I have come to Northfield, year after year and received the blessing and benediction of its world wide character. Dwight L. Moody was a master of men, he is today "more alive than ever" as he prophesied. His life was guided by the Master and he ministered to and for the salvation of his hearers. He loved humanity and in the unselfishness of his labor he builded. These schools are a living tribute to his memory, to whom even I also owe much.

Dr. and Mrs. D. R. Porter Have Surprise Greeting

Members of the Mount Hermon school faculty, the official staff and a number of guests accorded Dr. and Mrs. David R. Porter a surprise greeting and party at the faculty house on Monday evening. Plans now made by Dr. Porter are that he will leave on June 30 in order to take up his new work with the Prisoners of War Committee of the Y. M. C. A., after serving nine years as Headmaster of the Mount Hermon school.

William Morrow as spokesman for the gathered group, presented the Headmaster as a token of appreciation, a suit case, a brief case and a bill fold with some good American money. Mrs. Porter was given a watch and a bouquet of flowers. The brief case contained the personal messages of greeting and farewell from many friends. The evening was spent in a social way.

Boys Damage Property

While Rev. Thomas T. Brown and his wife have been in Florida for the past two years, they have closed their home on Main street, but boys have trespassed on the property and it is reported that in all, some 39 panes of glass have been broken by the throwing of stones. A complaint has been filed with the selectmen and Mr. Brown now intends to prosecute the offenders. The state police have been notified and will begin an investigation. Several boys are under suspicion.

Mobilization Call Last Sunday Morning

Early last Sunday morning at 6.24 o'clock the alarm was sounded to mobilize the members of the local Guard Company for service to repel an imaginary enemy and all air raid wardens out to protect the community. Firemen and police were out and on their jobs, as well as all members of the various units of Civilian Defense. Members of the committee were on duty, to receive all signals and reports. The all clear came later and the experience was pronounced a splendid success by Chairman McEwan and Dr. Holton of the protective department. However the Guard discovered there was no "enemy" and after assuming their responsibilities returned to their headquarters. County Chairman Heseltine praised all workers in the various centers for a prompt response to the call and said every center in the county had been fully manned.

Pass Both Articles At Special Meeting Of Town Voters

In a noisy setting, with an entertainment in the hall overhead, a goodly sized number of voters gathered to consider the Warrant for the special meeting called Tuesday evening. Called to order by the Moderator the call was read by the Town Clerk and the articles taken up for consideration. Article I called for $2000 to convert the Center school heating system from oil to coal, demanded by the Federal authority. Supt. Taylor called upon for an explanation of the matter went into full details covering the subject and reading from the letters the School Board had received. Much discussion followed and to many it was considered wise to make an appeal from the decision. Chairman Fred A. Holton of the Selectmen suggested that the money could be taken from the "excess and deficiency fund." Finally the motion that the sum of $2000 be appropriated and taken from the "excess and deficiency fund" for the conversion was passed by a majority vote. On Article 2, regarding the situation in town of the hydrant water service, it was voted that the Selectmen name a committee of three to study the matter carefully and bring in a report to the annual meeting of the town next February. There was no opposition to this action.

Recalling Old Friends The Murray Family

To recall the Murray family, is to remember many past associations of good friends of former years, who were among the usual visitors each year to Northfield and frequenters of its conferences and activities. The Murray home on the hillside to the northward out Winchester road still remains in the family possession but its members today are scattered. The friendships of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Murray are valued. Mr. Murray has passed on and Mrs. Murray is living in Yonkers from whom recently has come a kindly message. Of the sons, James is married and with his wife living in New York city; Peyton, unmarried, is located in Ohio; Archibald is living in Summit, N. J., and has a small son and daughter; Hamilton lives in Hastings-on the Hudson and has two young sons. Of the daughters, the eldest is married and with her husband and two sons is living on Long Island. Janet, unmarried, is residing in Cambridge. A united family, devoted each to the other, and nurtured in Christian character, the Murray family had and still have in Northfield many friends.

From Mrs. Polhemus A Word Of Greeting

A letter from Mrs. Jessamine W. Polhemus from her home in Miami, Florida, reveals that she is keeping in close contact with her friends in Northfield through the Press and doesn't want to miss a single copy. She is enjoying her residence and says that Miami has been crowded this season and houses were difficult to get. Many men of the services are in evidence at the various camps near by and the place presents a martial spirit. Her youngest son, Roger is with her. Her oldest son, Tabor Polhemus, who married Gladys Miller, is located at Natick, Mass., and is in a defense plant. Douglas was inducted in February and was in training at Miami Beach. His wife and baby daughter are with Mrs. Polhemus. Douglas is a drill master. Jack Polhemus is in the ROTC at Texas University and is working for a naval commission and his degree for 1944. Roger is attending the High school and is a member of the civilian air patrol. Mrs. Polhemus extends her greetings to all friends here and wishes she could look in upon them all.

The Victory Exhibit Held On Saturday Pine Street School

Saturday the official opening of the new home of the Historical Society will take place from 2 to 8 p. m. in the former schoolhouse on Pine street. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Admission is free.

Northfield Old will be represented by antique furniture, pictures of past days, old fashioned baby clothing as well as the gowns our grandmothers and great-grandmothers wore, and many relics of the pre twentieth century. There is a large room that came from the old Merriman place on Northfield mountain, and a small hand loom donated by George Long. The canteen used by Francis Stockbridge in the Civil War is there, also three days' rations of hardtack. Several hat blocks recall the industry that several hatters started in town in 17505. An old trunk and tobacco box came from Doolittle's Tavern. A wooden spoon and soup ladle have been in the Whittemore family for 200 years. Articles have been contributed by C. C. Stearns, Mrs. Martin Vorce, Mrs. Carpenter and many other friends. The Grand Army records of Northfield men in the Civil War were entrusted to the Historical Society and are open for inspection.

Northfield New will be represented by a "Victory Exhibit" on the second floor of the school house, which is built around the first recorded Northfield Honor Roll of our Service Men and Women. The greatest undertaking of this whole enterprise has been executed by Mrs. Isabl Smith of Youth Hostels. The town is most fortunate to have an artist of wide renown record by hand the 162 names which compose the list. 158 of our men are in American uniforms in the Army, Navy, Marines and Red Cross. We have four girls also in the uniforms of the WAVES, WAACS, Registered Army Nurse, and American Red Cross. It must be remembered that this Honor Roll is not an authentic beginning of a list which will be added to every six months. Every service family is grateful to Mrs. Smith for the hours of work she has put into this record.

Besides the Northfield Honor Roll from this area, there will also be an Honor List of men with Northfield home ties whose families have come here to live for the duration while husbands and sons are away. This list was inscribed by Mrs. George Sheldon.

There will also appear in the large second floor room a display of Allied Flags under the supervision of Prof. and Mrs. Carl Compton. The walls of this Allied Corner will bear foreign posters, and around the other sides of the exhibit there will be a variety of American posters.

Of special interest to school children will be the World Map in which have been stuck small American flags in every country to which Northfield boys have gone: China, India, Australia, Alaska, Africa, Ireland and England.

The Army-Aviation models, including a plane spotter's cabin, soldiers representing a dozen different kinds of army service, a hangar full of planes, a dirigible, and a complete medical unit presented to Captain C. Cochrane by the staff of his hospital when he went in the service, will interest all, as will the Navy model with its commando barge, submarine, carrier, and coast guard unit.

One table exhibited only on Saturday, will show relics sent home by our boys from overseas. This corner will also show a collection of V letters, letter headings from a variety of U. S. camps and forts, and snapshots including one taken by a "Life" photographer in Hawaii who provides a South Sea Island belle to pose with anyone wishing local atmosphere.

On the lawn surrounding Pine Street school there will be a Food and Flower Sale, the proceeds going to the local Service Men's Fund of which Mrs. W. E. Park is treasurer. Pies, home-made bread, coffee, will be on sale and for the Northfield Seminary girls there will be cookies and sandwiches. Beautiful bouquets of flowers as well as colorful small corsages will add not only to the attractiveness of this sale, but also to its financial success.

The Memorial Day Interscholastic Track Meet will be held Saturday at Mount Hermon school with four entries this year instead of the 17 in usual years. Competing schools are Kimball Union, Vermont Academy, Deerfield, and Mount Hermon. The meet will begin at 1 p. m.

The "Sub" Drew Crowds To Greet Appearance Despite Bad Weather

The Japanese suicide "sub" which was taken at Pearl Harbor in the attack upon our forces, was seen in Northfield on Wednesday morning and from Millers Falls to Winchester, the highway was the focal point where our citizens gathered to see it pass through. The "sub" came here from Greenfield, where it was exhibited, via French King bridge and route 63, and arriving at the Northfield High school made a satisfactory stop and the pupils of our schools turned out en masse to extend a greeting. Deputy Sheriff Vorce and a number of auxiliary police were on hand to control the traffic and the area. State police in several cars escorted the huge exhibit and were met here by the State police groups from New Hampshire who took over on the journey to Keene. E. M. Powell of this town who is deputy State Administrator of the War Savings Commission, accompanied the "sub" staff through the valley and was greeted here by Mr. Pearsall, chairman of the local committee. Hundreds passed along the "sub" and peered inside in the short wait. Inside of Spencer Bros. garage the police accompanying the exhibit and the members of the staff, including representatives of the Treasury department with Mr. Gahagan, chief in charge, were treated to coffee, sandwiches and cookies, prepared by the High school class of the home economics department. Before departing Mr. Gahagan gave a description of the curious ship, a bit of its history and its purpose in visiting communities to stimulate the sale of War bonds and stamps. He congratulated the people of Northfield, especially the pupils of its schools in the fine record of sales already attained and urged them to keep up the good work. Mr. Powell replied in behalf of the community and expressed the appreciation of the citizens in being granted the privilege of the visit, which will long be remembered. Through East Northfield crowds lined the highway and the Seminary students also enjoyed watching the monster pass.

Taylor, chairman of the committee in charge of the new skating rink, which was built last fall and used by our young people with much delight during the winter season, announces a community working "bee" for Tuesday evening, June 1st, when he wants about fifty men to finish the grading and to seed the rink. About twenty men with shovels are needed, twenty-four men with rakes and six men with hoes. The groups will begin to gather for work at 5.30 o'clock and it is hoped to finish the job that evening. Men are urged to co-operate if only for a short period, if only an hour. Should it be rainy the party will be held the next fair evening. The rink is located in the field between the church and the brook and has a cabin on the grounds for the convenience of the skaters. ### DO-SAY

Two brothers once lived down this way,
And one was Do and one was Say,
If streets were dirty, taxes high,
Or schools too crowded, Say would cry,
"Lord what a town!" but Brother Do
Would set to work to make it new.
And while Do worked, Say still would cry:
"He does it wrong! I know that I Could do it right." So all the day
Was heard the clack of Brother Say.
But this one fact from none was hid:
Say always talked, Do always did.

UNLESS ESSENTIAL TO THE WAR...

TODAY, the long distance lines to war centers outside New England are carrying the heaviest traffic in their history. . . . And theirs is a major responsibility for keeping these places humming.

That's why we ask your help . . . use these lines only for war business except in case of extreme urgency.

It will help, too, if you will cancel any non-vital call when told that circuits are busy.

With assistance from you in these ways . . . we shall be able to handle promptly all really urgent messages, even to busy places.

THE NORTHFIELD PRESS

TOWN TOPICS

Stanley Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Johnson, has been accepted for army service and will report to Fort Devens.

The Book Club met at the home of Mrs. Walter Hyde on North lane on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Hyde and Mrs. Allen H. Wright as hostesses. Among those attending was Mrs. T. F. Darby, a former member now living at St. Albans, Vt.

Town officials have received the 1942 report of the County Treasurer and the County Commissioners, which gives an account of their splendid work during the past year and reveals the fine financial condition of the county government.

Lecturer Emory Rikert of the Grange laments much necessary activity of the Grange these days in the holding of social affairs. The demand for work on the farms and the victory gardens and the problem of transportation will limit attendance. However the Grange will maintain its regular meetings but probably abandon its social functions.

Rev. Willard L. McKinstry, minister of the Unitarian church of Nantucket, was the guest preacher at the Unitarian church last Sunday. His topic was, "The Church of the Future."

Rev. Arthur Heeb is in Boston this week attending the meetings of the American Unitarian Association.

Miss Pauline Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Miller of Greenfield and formerly of Gill, and Sgt. Henry Womsey stationed in Georgia, were married on Monday evening at the North Parish church in Greenfield. The Miller family have many friends and relatives in this town and Mr. Miller was at one time Master of the Northfield Grange.

Miss Fanny C. Hatch, formerly of this town who has been at St. Petersburg, Florida, during the past winter has returned to her home, at the Oaks, in Springfield.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. T. T. Brown of lower Main street, who have been in Orlando for the past two years, will probably remain there this season and their home here will be in charge of a caretaker.

Rev. D. B. F. Hoyt, pastor of All Souls church of Brattleboro, was given the honorary degree of doctor of divinity at the recent commencement of Tufts College. He is well known in this community.

There is a new directory list of the residents of Northfield, including those of Hinsdale, in the new Brattleboro 1943 edition just distributed by the Manning Company, publishers.

Mrs. Adeline Chesbro, a summer resident of Rustic Ridge, is spending the year with her father and mother in Laven, Arizona.

Mrs. Lena Moor of Birnam road returned to her home last week after spending the winter with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Schmadeke at Thompsonville, Conn.

Harry Murray, a former resident of this town, but now residing in Binghamton, N. Y., was a visitor here last week.

Miss Susan Robert McDowell of Kent, Conn., and Sgt. William Metcalf Schutte, U. S. A. of Lakeville, Conn., were married in the Kent school chapel on May 15th. Miss Schutte was graduated from the Northfield Seminary.

Mr. and Mrs. John Laestadius of Brooklyn, N. Y., are at her mother's cottage (Mrs. Maude N. Voris) for a stay. They are accompanied by two friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank N. Ray of Providence, R. I., arrived in town last week Friday to reopen their summer home for this season.

David L. Phelps, the three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Phelps of Bernardston, died Saturday of last week after a short illness. He was a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Phelps of Main street of this town.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Goodspeed attended the wedding of Miss Eleanor J. Bliss of Winchester, N. H., and Stanley Hall King of Lowell in Winchester last Saturday afternoon.

Dr. William E. Park as president of the Northfield schools and Rev. Edward C. Dahl as minister of the local Congregational church are guests at the installation of the Rev. Warren C. Campbell at the North Parish church in Greenfield this Friday afternoon and evening. Mr. Campbell succeeds the Rev. George K. Carter who has retired.

R. Stanley Reid of Wilson's Department Store in Greenfield has been chosen as a director of the Franklin County Trust Co. Mr. and Mrs. Reid visited friends in Northfield recently and their niece will enter the Seminary as a student this fall.

Duncan S. Chamberlain, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Chamberlain of this town, was commissioned a second lieutenant in the U. S. Army finance department at the officers' candidate school at Duke University recently. He entered the service last March.

Miss Ruby M. Sheldon of Springfield has purchased the summer cottage of the late Miss Margaret Ross in the Highlands and will take possession immediately.

Members of the Northfield Highlands Association can now be reached by telephone. The number is 294.

There was a flag unfurled at the East Northfield Postoffice on Tuesday when in the presence of the Postmaster Mr. Skilton, the assistant postmaster Mr. Bigelow and the staff, also Chairman Fred A. Holton of the Seelctment, Postoffice Inspector Felix J. Reilly of the Worcester office, raised the emblem to the breeze, to its position, where it will fly daily hereafter.

All Workers Work Regardless Of Name In Farm Effort

The public may be confused as to the difference between the Woman's Land Army, Victory Farm Volunteers, United States Crop Corps, and other emergency labor groups, but all members of these groups have but one purpose—feeding fighters in '43. Roy E. Moser, state supervisor of emergency farm labor, pointed this out in giving a brief explanation of the farm labor groups so that the general public would have a better picture of the set up or organization.

U. S. C. C. (United States Crop Corps) is the official title of the all over organization or program sponsored by the United States Department of Agriculture. In the various states the farm labor program is being handled by the state and county extension services with the county agricultural agents and the emergency farm labor assistants being the key men. In Massachusetts there is no state title for the men workers. They are officially members of the United States Crop Corps.

For women over 18 years of age the official title in Massachusetts and for the United States Department of Agriculture will be Woman's Land Army. In Massachusetts this WLA will be directed by Miss Beatrice Billings of the Massachusetts State College Extension Service. The Massachusetts Farm Volunteers, known nationally as the Victory Farm Volunteers, include young folks up to 18 years of age. In some sections these are also known as High School Victory Corps people. They are all working, however, toward the same goal regardless of title or name.

Closely co-operating with the extension service in carrying out the farm program is Governor Saltonstall's farm labor committee with James DeNormandie of the Massachusetts Department of Agriculture as chairman. Mr. Moser is secretary of this committee. In close co-operation is another group, the United States Employment Service, which last year handled the farm labor placements. Also co-operating are the Rural War Action committees in each county of Massachusetts. Grove W. Deming is the coordinator here in this territory.

REST... THIS YEAR
In Cool, Quiet Pioneer Valley

BET you don't know you live in a famous vacation region—complete with lakes, brooks, country hotels and purple mountains! In sixty to ninety minutes, by bus or train, you can reach a choice of cool, quiet places to stay that will be open this year.

Most of these hotels, inns, and farmhouses are within walking distance of swimming, fishing and golf; all are surrounded by the beautiful scenery that brought summer visitors here from many distant states.

These places cannot convert to war use, yet will serve the war effort by giving tired people a rest and change. Whether or not you are doing defense work, this year more than ever, you and your family need a vacation.

Write for a list of pleasant hotels and inns in Pioneer Valley and a map showing bus and train service to fifty nearby vacation towns and villages. And please start and end your vacation in the middle of the week.

OUR MONUMENT

The world's greatest monument to religion and faith is to be found in America, where the four great freedoms are to be found. Our country was founded because bands of freedom loving people insisted on the right to go about their daily lives, thinking, believing and worshipping openly according to their own conscience and not according to the dictation of some arbitrary authority. The preservation of religious freedom as one of the inalienable rights has carried America through the hardships of colonial days, through the sacrifices of the Revolution and through the troubled years of the Federal government. Always there has been a faith in divine Providence, which has encouraged our individual freedom and kept the nation moving forward through the years to a place of leadership among the nations and now the task of saving them. Religion and faith with us is a living monument.

WATER HYDRANTS

At the town meeting on Tuesday evening the first step was taken to consider and solve the mooted question of hydrant service in the community. At the last annual town meeting a motion was passed to pay a demanded charge, but the action opened up a problem of cost and service throughout the entire area of the town. Now the responsibility will rest with the selectmen in the appointment of a committee of three to go into the whole situation and clarify the facts for a report to the next annual town meeting. If this committee will accomplish its work in fairness to all concerned, it will do its job well and the voters will be glad to accept their findings. Perhaps the committee is too small to numerically represent all the districts of the town, for all sections should be so represented, but with the limited number, we may be able to get better results, at least if those appointed assume the responsibility.

Know Massachusetts

DO YOU KNOW THAT . . . Motor vehicle traffic on Massachusetts highways during April was 41.7 per cent less than in April 1942 and 50.8 per cent less than in April 1941. . . . Motor vehicle registrations in the Commonwealth during the first three months this year totaled 721,000 compared with 800,500 in the same period a year ago; but cancellations of registrations have been lighter this year, so that the net number of vehicles in operation on April 1 stood only 8.9 per cent less than on April 1, 1942. . . . Relief expenditures in Massachusetts during 1942 for old age assistance, general relief and aid to dependent children amounted to $52,520,983, compared with $54,319,929 in 1941. Cost of general relief dropped $4,505,791 and aid to children $459,209, but old age assistance increased by $3,166,054. . . . Of the 1,534,787 persons gainfully employed in Massachusetts in 1940, 1,050,678 were male and 484,109 female; of the males 39 per cent were not over 34 years old and 62 per cent were not over 44 years old. . . . Compared with the average in 1940, factory employment in Springfield has increased about 64 per cent, in Holyoke 46 per cent, Chicopee 109 per cent, West Springfield 106 per cent, Westfield 59 per cent, and Northampton 25 per cent. . . . By recent act of the Legislature, local planning boards of the Commonwealth are required to make annual reports to their respective city councils or town meetings and to file copies of all their reports with the State Planning Board.

Back Yard Gardener

I noticed an item in a local paper last week which said that victory gardeners were a bit less enthusiastic right now than a month ago, due probably to the fact that they were beginning to realize that gardens don't grow by wishing.

Yes, that's one difficulty in having a garden, but the trouble is caused more by the gardener than by the garden. You can enjoy work in a vegetable garden if you go at it in the right manner. A few rows padded yesterday, raked and harrowed today, and planted tomorrow make work easy and backaches few.

The trouble I think with most of us is that we have too many irons in the fire and then we want to do all three of those jobs some evening after supper hoping to get through in time to play a hand or two of bridge before we go to bed. We give gardens credit for being healthful exercise, but it's not healthful if you work it as I described here.

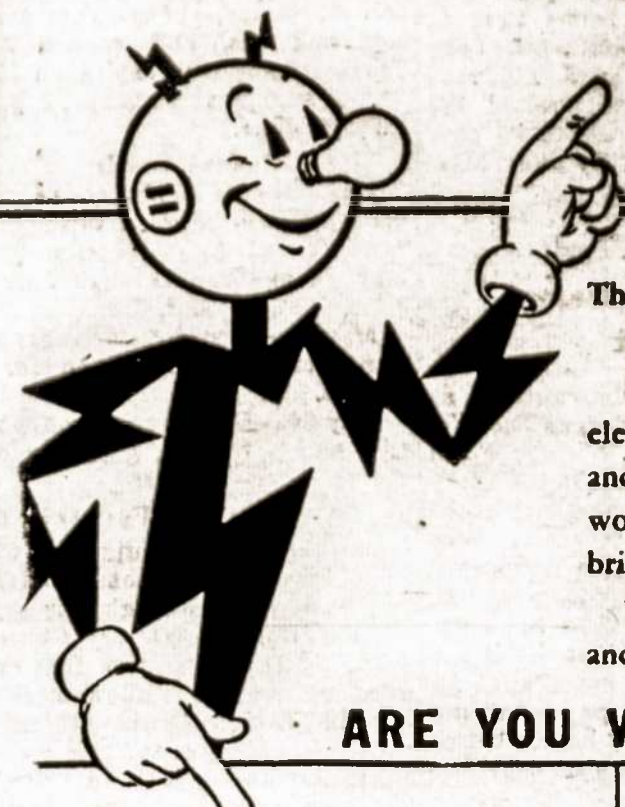

Another method which is sure to bring trouble is to peel off your shirt in the heat of the day and try to do a week's work in a few hours. Your muscles are ruined and the sun will burn you to a crisp. I'll admit that weeds pulled or hoed in the heat of the day have less chance of recovery, but so will you have less chance.

As one fellow put it, try to enjoy the work. If you see some children playing or some birds in the trees, stop and look at them. Dream a little and be thankful that you can work under God's canopy.

"There is no shortage of ELECTRIC POWER . . . and there will be none . . . for war and civilian requirements."

J. A. KRUG, Director
Office of War Utilities

The above statement hits the nail on the head!

But don't overlook the word "essential."

It takes precious man-power to produce electric power—men to mine coal, railroaders and mariners to carry coal, electric utility workers to convert coal to electric power and bring it to your home.

To waste electricity is to waste materials and man-power needed for the war.

ARE YOU WASTING ELECTRICITY?

Don't open refrigerator door more often than necessary. Don't place hot loads in refrigerator—wait until they cool. DEFROST refrigerator at regular intervals.	Turn your radio off if no one is actually listening to it. Keep the volume at LOW as possible.
Don't leave toaster, iron or other appliances on longer than needed. See that cords and plugs are kept in good condition.	Remember—blackened bulbs, dust and dirt on lamps and fixtures, dark walls and shades—all waste the light you pay for. Place lamps where they'll do the most good and turn them off when leaving the room.
In surface cooking switch to LOW heat when foods come to full steam. Use very little water. Cook full meals including dessert in oven or economy cooker. Remember, food will still cook for while on stored heat after current is turned off.	Don't run washer longer than necessary—7 to 12 minutes is usually enough. Don't load washer—keep it well oiled.

Be Sure To Include His Favorites In Father's Special Holiday Menu

WHEN you plan a feast for Father on his special holiday, be sure to include his favorite foods in the menu. It's worthwhile doing a special bit of ration-point arithmetic to serve a roast or steak to his liking, and to save up a sugar bank so you can manage the dessert that appeals most to his sweet tooth. It's thoughtful to co-star decaffeinated coffee with the dessert, so that everybody can relax fast nerves and forget sleeping worries. You will find that the new all-purpose decaffeinated grind can be used satisfactorily in any type of coffee-making apparatus. A rounded tablespoon to every cup of water gives a brew of standard strength. One of those oversize cups for your guest of honor will add a holiday note to the menu. If your chosen dessert is a pie, you can add a personal touch by pricking "father" in the top crust with the end of a match before baking.

Father's Day Brew
Use 1 rounded tablespoon all-purpose grind decaffeinated coffee to every cup (½ pint) water. Make by boiled or percolated method. (If percolated, "perk" 18 to 20 minutes slowly and gently, or longer than ordinary coffee.) For café au lait, have ready a pot of hot milk. When serving, pour milk and coffee together into cup in equal amounts.

Honey Apple Pie
1 recipe pastry
2 cups sliced apples
½ cup honey
½ teaspoon cinnamon
1 tablespoon water
1 tablespoon butter
Line 9-inch pie plate with pastry and fill with apples, pared and sliced thin. Sprinkle with honey, cinnamon and water. Dot with butter. Cover with top crust. Prick the word "Father" in the top crust with a match end. Bake in hot oven (450°F.) 10 minutes; then reduce heat to moderate (350°F.) and bake 40 to 50 minutes longer.
